

R.Gritto

Biography of Ricardo Moreira da Silva

R.Gritto Living in Paris since December 2018. Born in Porto - Portugal, Ricardo Moreira da Silva grew up in a cultured familial context and show early signs of creativity, independence and social involvement thanks to art and cultural activities he was involved in. We can see his interdisciplinary approach as well as his strong creativity through his Education. From architecture to fine art, from Communication sciences to cinema. Not only he studied but also worked in this various sectors of activity where he acquired a strong knowledge of institutions as well as the capability of running intercultural and interdisciplinary projects. He won many awards in respective fields, His thirst for art combined with social actions drove him to be a commissioner as well as an exponent in various exhibitions. For this very same conception of art intertwined with social with social approach he is also eager to share his knowledge, encourage others to create and promote social values such as women's rights, children's education or popular access to culture.

His last projects Konsolidarte and Women Art Power are only the continuation of his previous actions where he gained and shared all type of experiences, He is currently deeply involved in the timorese art scene

By Alexandre Lallemand